GODEY'S LADY'S BOOK, FOR 1850
"The Book of the Nation."

THE OLDEST MAGAZINE IN AMERICA.
Published by the present Proprietor for Twenty Years.
EDITED BY MRS. SARAH J. HALE.

Comparison between "Godey" and the other Philadelphia Monthlies.

In 1849, the Lady's Book gave 216 pages—which is 116 more than one, and 148 pages more than the other Philadelphia monthly.—It gave 254 engravings—among which were 20 colored, and 73 full pages—which is 129 more than one, and 180 more than the other.

We gave, in each number, a piece of music, printed separately on tinted paper, making 24 pages, or 12 pieces in a year. To show the cheapness of this Lady's Book, this same music, if bought separately at the music stores, would cost exactly the price of the whole year's subscription—$2.

Some of our peculiar Embellishments.

Ladies' Work Table—which comprises every kind of Needlework, Embroidery, Knitting, Netting, Crochet, Patterns for Caps, Chemises, Children's clothes, Wedding Dresses, In-door and Out-door costumes; Birds of America; Colored Flower Plates; Model Cottages and Furniture; Fashionable do.; Lace-Work; Vignette Plates at the head of articles, etc. etc. All the above are illustrated by engravings.

The Costumes of all Nations.

With descriptions by Mrs. Hale. Most of the old features of the Book that were so popular last year, will be retained, and new ones added as they may suggest themselves to the publisher.

A New Novel, by W. Gilmore Simms, will be one of the features for 1850.

OUR READING MATTER.

We have long stood at the head of the magazine world for our contributions; they are always moral and instructive, and such as may be placed before a family without hesitation. This department is under the control of Mrs. SARAH JOSEPHA HALE, whose name alone is a sufficient guarantee for the propriety of the Lady's Book. We may say the same of our engravings. We will never, as is done by a cotemporary, publish indecent model-artist pictures, such as no parent would allow a child to look at.

GODEY'S LADY'S BOOK for 1850 shall surpass that of 1849, and exceed all magazines—past, present and to come.

Terms, Cash in advance, postage paid

"America Guided by Wisdom" is a very large line engraving, and cost $1800 to engrave. "General Taylor and Old Whitley," is one of the largest of General Taylor prints, and is engraved from an original painting, at a cost of $1000. The heads of Wesley and Fletcher are of a good size for framing.

These Plates cannot be purchased at the Stores at less than $3 each.

ANOTHER OFFER TO CLUBS.

Should any of the club subscribers prefer to have a copy of the following beautiful and appropriate engravings, "Christ's Release," "Christ Weeping over Jerusalem," "The Two Marys at the Sepulchre," and "The Deliverance of St. Peter," in place of any of the others made above, they can have them.

Premiums are only sent when the Subscriptions are remitted direct to the Publisher. The Lady's Book for 1850 will contain several hundred good engravings.

PROSPECTUS OF THE
THE KNICKERBOCKER MAGAZINE
EDITED BY LEWIS GATFORD CLARK.

This is pronounced, by the press of America and England, "the best Magazine in America." It has now completed its thirty-fourth volume, and in its list of upward of a hundred contributors, are found the names of every distinguished writer, male and female, in America, with several equally prominent of Great Britain, Turkey, Sweden, etc. A new volume will commence with the first day of January, 1850.—The following notices of the Knickerbocker are from the American and English press, to which might be added hundreds of others.

The last Knickerbocker is exceeding good. Some of the articles are worthy of BLACKWOOD's polished pages. The Editor's title is in Mr. Clark's happiest vein; varied as may in a remarkable degree.—N. Y. Commercial Ad.

The Knickerbocker seems to increase in attraction as it advances in age. It exhibits a monthly variety of contributions unsurpassed in number or ability.—Nat. Intelligencer.

The Knickerbocker is one of the most valuable Magazines of the day, and outstrips all competition in the higher walks of literature. Albany Argus.

The Knickerbocker Magazine is now beyond a question the magazine of the country. Whoever wishes his money's worth, and something over, let him subscribe now to "Old Knick," and our word for it, the Editor's Table alone will amply satisfy his expectations. It is not a periodical to be lightly glanced over and thrown by, but it forms a library book to save and re-read. A set of the Knickerbocker, bound up in volumes, on the shelves of one of our popular libraries, is more consulted (as the librarian has often told us) than any other similar work.—Boston Daily Transcript.

THE LONDON EXAMINER.—This very clever Magazine is the pleasantest periodical in the United States. Its articles, which are numerous and short, various and interesting, are well worthy of imitation by our Magazines on this side of the Atlantic.

LONDON "MORNING CHRONICLE."—Judging from the numbers before us, we are inclined to consider this the best of all the American literary periodicals. Its contents are highly interesting, instructive and amusing.

Reduction in price to Clubs.

The publisher has determined to do everything in his power to bring the Knickerbocker within the means of all, and invites the attention of those who feel an interest in circulating the best American literature, to the following terms to clubs, viz:

For 5 copies to one address,	$20 00
" 10 " " " "	35 00
" 20 " " " "	60 00

Post Masters throughout the United States are invited and requested to act as agents. To all those who may interest themselves in getting up clubs, we will send a copy free so long as they keep up, and remit regularly the yearly payment.

To the Subscribers and all interested in our Work.

The publisher desires to avail himself of this opportunity to thank those who have manifested their unabated interest in the Knickerbocker, by sending subscribers. Quite a number have done so, and no doubt with a very slight effort on the part of some friends, our list might be doubled. As a further inducement for this effort on the part of our patrons, we wish to say, that no pains or expense will be spared to enhance the value of the work, and our pages will prove that our readers will receive at least as large a share of benefit from our increased means as we could expect ourselves.

AGENTS WANTED FOR THE KNICKERBOCKER MAGAZINE.
